

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

December 29, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690; bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Brown and Clerk's Office Employees Play Santa

On December 15, the Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and several members of her staff delivered more than 150 gifts to the children of the Anthony Overton Child Parent Center, located at 4935 S. Indiana. Clerk Brown presented the gifts on behalf of her employees who answered all of the "Letters to Santa" written by the children.

"My staff members and I are very fortunate to be able to grant the wishes of children during this holiday season," said Clerk Brown, who personally presented each child with his or her gifts.

The children were excited and their parents overwhelmed by the outpouring of generosity. Overton Center Principal Lula Carey and her staff served as Santa's helpers in the distribution of presents.

The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, poses with the children and staff of the Anthony Overton Child Parent Center, prior to handing out the more than 150 gifts donated by her staff.