Clerk Dorothy Brown Celebrates Diversity Aimed Toward Unity

Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host the fourth annual Clerk's Office Unity Day Celebration on Thursday, September 30, 2004. This year's celebration, "Diversity Aimed Toward Unity" will be held in the 10th floor lobby at the Daley Center from 12 noon until 1:30 p.m.

"There is a diverse cultural environment in the Clerk's Office and our Unity Day event is the occasion when we all celebrate our ethnic and group variety as well as our desire for tolerance and cooperation," said Clerk Brown.

A spectacular cultural parade produced by the eight ethnic and community employee committees is the cornerstone of Clerk Brown's Unity Day celebration. The event will feature fashions and traditional costumes. A few highlights will be Asian wedding attire, African ceremonial costumes, ensembles of Hispanic countries and Irish clothing: traditional to modern.

The City of Chicago Commission on Human Relations designated September as Unity Month to increase sensitivity to issues of gender, ethnicity, race, sexual orientation and ability/disability.

In addition to informative presentations, the committees will prepare various ethnic foods served buffet-style.
