Dorothy Brown Joins Hellenic Community Organizations to Offer Guidance on How to Navigate the Clerk's Office Estate Processes

CHICAGO (Apr.17, 2006) – The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, the Clerk's Office Hellenic Advisory Committee, the Hellenic Bar Association and the Hellenic Foundation are sponsoring a seminar on the role of the Clerk's Office in the Probate Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County. The presentation will be held on Tuesday, April 25, 2006, from 6 to 8 p.m. in St. Andrew's Greek Orthodox Church Auditorium, 5649 N. Sheridan Rd., in Chicago.

This seminar will give citizens the chance to learn about the types of cases heard in the Probate Division, filing processes and important forms, especially those relating to estate administration and planning.

"I am honored to join prominent Greek community groups in hosting this event that will give citizens the necessary tools to navigate the Clerk's Office," said Clerk Brown. "I hope the public will take advantage of this opportunity to gain a better understanding of how to use the service available in the Probate Division."

Clerk's Office First Chief Deputy General Counsel Elena Shea Demos will serve as mistress of ceremonies for the seminar. She also serves as the Office Liaison to the Clerk's Office Hellenic Advisory Committee.

The seminar is free and open to the public.
