Dorothy Brown and Milhouse Businessman Award
Laptop Computers to Deserving Students

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and Wilbur Milhouse, President of Milhouse Engineering and Construction, will present computers to two recent high school graduates during the First Milhouse Engineering Incentive Computer Scholarship Award Ceremony.

Crystle Coffey of Oak Lawn Community High School and Elizabeth Giwa of Tinley Park High School will receive laptop computers, awarded by Clerk Brown and Mr. Milhouse. The Milhouse Engineering Incentive Computer Scholarship is open to the college bound children and grandchildren of Clerk's Office employees.

"I am honored to participate in this program that provides talented young people with computer scholarships to assist them with their college endeavors," said Clerk Brown.

When: Wednesday, July 26, 2006
9:30 a.m.

Where: Richard J. Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Concourse Level Room 115
Chicago

Details: The scholarship recipients either have a grandparent or parent employed by the Clerk's Office, and have maintained a 3.0 or higher grade point average in high school. In addition, both recipients have been accepted as full-time undergraduate students at accredited colleges and intend to major in business, engineering or political science.
