Clerk Dorothy Brown Demonstrates Culinary Skills as TV Celebrity Chef

CHICAGO (March 28, 2005) – The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, was the celebrity chef on the television program, “Josephine’s Cookin’,” on March 21. The show is named after the owner of Chicago’s Captain’s Hard Time Dining restaurant, Josephine Wade. In a lively demonstration, Clerk Brown showed television viewers how to make German chocolate cake using her special recipe.

“I was delighted to participate in this cooking show,” said Clerk Brown. “I enjoyed sharing my baking tips with viewers.”

Clerk Brown was one of the first celebrity chefs scheduled to appear on “Josephine’s Cookin’,” which airs on Chicago Cable Access Channel 25.
