Clerk Brown Delivers 100 Gifts to Southside Children

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will personally present 106 gifts to the children of Anthony Overton Child Parent Center on Chicago's Southside.

Overton Center Principal Loretta Dent and her students will greet Clerk Brown when she arrives with the presents.

Clerk Brown and Clerk's Office employees purchased the vast array of toys in response to the children's requests made through the "Letters to Santa" program of the Chicago Sun-Times.

"It is a blessing to grant the wishes of children during this season of giving," said Clerk Brown.

When: Monday, December 22, 2003
10 a.m.

Where: Anthony Overton Child Parent Center
4935 S. Indiana

Details: Overton Center teachers, Barbara Brooks and Lula Carey, helped coordinate the gift-giving program with Clerk Brown's office. Each present is personally addressed to a child and contains the gift that he or she requested.
