

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

September 29, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690; bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Brown Celebrates Diversity Aimed Toward Unity

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, is hosting a Unity Day event titled, "Diversity Aimed Toward Unity."

When: Thursday, September 30, 2004
12 noon -1:30 p.m.

Where: Daley Center, 50 W. Washington, 10th Floor Lobby

Details: "Diversity Aimed Toward Unity" will feature a cultural parade of the various ethnic and community groups of the Clerk's Office. Following is the order of appearance:

Italian-American Committee- The Tomato: A Perfect Unity Vegetable

Polish-American Committee- Eastern European Folk Costumes

Hellenic-American Committee-Traditional Greek Costumes

African-American Committee-Traditional African Ceremonial Clothing

Irish-American Committee-Irish Clothing: Traditional to Modern

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered Committee- Fashion Statements in the Gay and Lesbian community

Hispanic-American Committee-Ensembles of Guatemala, El Salvador, Mexico and Puerto Rico

Asian-American Committee-Filipino, Japanese and Indian Wedding Attire

The program concludes with an ethnic food tasting buffet.

###