

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

August 18, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690;bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Dorothy Brown Hosts Polish Community Leaders

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host Polish community leaders during the inaugural Polish Advisory Committee meeting.

The Polish Advisory Committee is just one of a number of advisory committees established as part of Clerk Brown's original initiatives to understand the diverse issues affecting the citizens of Cook County. Committee members share thoughts concerning how the Clerk's Office can heighten awareness of its functions and introduce improved services in respect to their specific communities.

When: Thursday, August 19, 2004
9 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Executive Conference Room 1001

Details: Since taking office in December 2000, Clerk Brown has inaugurated several community advisory committees. Clerk Brown's committee members keep her informed of pertinent issues. They offer suggestions, make recommendations and provide advice to better enable the Clerk to serve all the citizens of Cook County. Clerk Brown appoints chairs and co-chairs for each committee, who then facilitate subsequent committee meetings.

###