Clerk Brown Welcomes 27 Chinese Officials
To Observe Cook County Traffic Court

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host a breakfast for 27 Chinese Officials before they embark on a tour of Cook County Traffic Court. The officials are participating in an economic and governmental management training program with a specific interest in traffic court since no such court exists in China.

“I am happy to welcome these officials from China to view our court system,” said Clerk Brown. “We are always excited about sharing beneficial information with interested persons from other countries.”

When: Tuesday, August 3, 2004
8:30 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, 10th Floor Lobby

Details: During their visit to the Clerk’s Office, the Chinese officials will be given statistical information and a brief overview of Traffic Court operations. In addition, they will observe court calls in traffic courtrooms.
