Clerk Brown Welcomes Hellenic Community Leaders

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host Hellenic community leaders during the inaugural Hellenic Advisory Committee meeting.

The Hellenic Advisory Committee is just one of a number of advisory committees established as part of Clerk Brown's original initiatives to understand the diverse issues affecting the citizens of Cook County. Committee members share thoughts concerning how the Clerk's Office can heighten awareness of its functions and introduce improved services in respect to their specific communities.

When: Thursday, July 15, 2004
9 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Executive Conference Room 1001

Details: Since taking office in December 2000, Clerk Brown has inaugurated several community advisory committees. Clerk Brown's committee members keep her informed of pertinent issues. They offer suggestions, make recommendations and provide advice to better enable the Clerk to serve all the citizens of Cook County. Clerk Brown appoints chairs and co-chairs for each committee, who then facilitate subsequent committee meetings.
