Clerk Brown to Host Asian-American Heritage Month Celebration

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, along with the members of the Clerk's Office Asian-American Employees Social Club, will host an Asian-American Heritage Celebration. The event will feature dancing, award presentations and cuisine sampling.

Ms. Kajal Shah, a DePaul University student, will perform native Indian dance and Mr. Gabby Cagbabanwa, a dance instructor, will perform traditional Filipino dance for the program. Following the performances and award presentations, employees will be treated to an Asian Cuisine buffet, from which they may taste a variety of native dishes, including Chole Masala, Chinese noodles and egg rolls.

Clerk Brown and many employees will attend the program dressed in traditional Asian attire.

"Our workforce reflects the wonderful diversity of Cook County, and I always enjoy participating in the various events sponsored by the ethnic committees of the Clerk's Office," said Clerk Brown. "The Asian-American Heritage Month celebration is especially colorful, exciting and educational."

When: Thursday, May 20, 2004
11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, 10th Floor Lobby

Details: On Friday, May 21, Clerk Brown will give remarks at the 6th Annual Asian American Festival taking place in the Daley Center Plaza from noon to 1:30 p.m.
