

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

September 13, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690;bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Dorothy Brown Hosts Archival Experts

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host individuals with expertise in archiving, records management and library science during the inaugural Archives Advisory Committee meeting.

The Archives Advisory Committee members will work to develop ways to best preserve court records entrusted to the care of the Clerk's Office and create a first-class research facility that makes information readily accessible to historians, legal scholars, journalists, sociologists and other interested parties.

When: Tuesday, September 14, 2004
9 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Ste. 1001

Details: The Circuit Court of Cook County is the second largest consolidated court system in the world. As Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Dorothy Brown is charged with caring for documents and other materials of historical, legal and social significance that date back to the 1871 Chicago fire.

###