

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

August 13, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690;bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Dorothy Brown Participates in Bud Billiken Parade

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, accompanied by over 100 marchers will participate in the 75th Annual Bud Billiken Parade, which is the largest parade in the United States.

Following the parade, the Clerk's Office will feature an information booth with brochures and flyers on the Unclaimed Child Support Check Internet Service and other office services inside Washington Park.

"I am honored to join in the Bud Billiken Parade to celebrate togetherness and education in the African American community," said Clerk Brown.

When: Saturday, August 14
10 a.m.

Where: Begins at 39th and King Drive and ends at 55th Street inside Washington Park

Details: More than 50 million children and their families have attended the Bud Billiken Parade since it began in 1929. The parade was established by Chicago Defender Newspaper Founder Robert S. Abbott and is held every year on the second Saturday in August.

###