

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

April 30, 2004 Contact: Bryant Payne (312) 603-5690; bdpayne@cookcountycourt.com

Clerk Dorothy Brown Speaks at Annual Law Day Breakfast

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will speak to over 200 high school students about the importance of commemorating the 1954 Brown vs. Board of Education decision during the breakfast program for the 2004 Law Day.

Clerk Brown along with Chief Judge Timothy Evans, the Illinois Judicial Council, Illinois State Bar Association and Cook County Bar Association, sponsor this program.

From 9:30 a.m. to 12 p.m., the high school students will shadow attorneys and judges in the Circuit Courtrooms of the Daley Center.

The Honorable Judge Ann C. Williams, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit, will be the keynote speaker at the Law Day Luncheon at Harold Washington Library Winter Garden Room from 12:30 p.m. until 2:30 p.m.

“I am proud to be a co-sponsor of this day that introduces students to the law profession,” said Clerk Brown. “I hope this urges students to commit themselves to work toward improving society so we can continue to ensure equal justice for all.”

When: Monday, May 3
8 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Room 2005
Chicago

Details: Law Day was established in 1957 by the American Bar Association as a day for the nation to collectively consider past legal challenges and successes while safeguarding the mandate of equal justice for all.

###