Clerk Brown Encourages 200 Future Jurors to Make Their Mark on the Legal System During the Annual Law Day Breakfast

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will discuss the importance of the American Jury system to nearly 200 junior high and high school students during the 2005 Law Day breakfast program.

Clerk Brown along with Chief Judge Timothy Evans, the Illinois Judicial Council, Illinois State Bar Association and Cook County Bar Association, sponsor this program.

In addition, Clerk Brown will introduce the keynote speaker Patricia Mell, Dean of the John Marshall Law School in Chicago, at the Law Day Luncheon at Harold Washington Library Winter Garden Room from 12:30 p.m. until 3:30 p.m.

“I am proud to participate in this day that introduces students to the legal system,” said Clerk Brown. “I hope the students will commit themselves to work toward improving society so we can continue to ensure equal justice for all.”

When: Monday, May 2
8:30 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Room 2005
Chicago

Details: Law Day was established in 1957 by the American Bar Association as a day for the nation to collectively consider past legal challenges and successes while safeguarding the mandate of equal justice for all. Students will shadow attorneys and judges in various courtrooms in the Daley Center to see firsthand how legal practices play out in society.
