Clerk Brown to Speak at Casimir Pulaski Day Ceremony

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, is scheduled to speak at the annual Casimir Pulaski Day Ceremony. She will discuss the importance of honoring his legacy as a leader committed to valiant resistance against oppression.

“I am thankful for this opportunity to be a part of the celebration honoring General Casimir Pulaski, a man who paid the ultimate price for freedom.” said Clerk Brown.

Pulaski is most remembered for giving his life on the battlefield while leading a cavalry charge in Savannah, Georgia, during the American Revolutionary War.

When: Monday, March 7, 2005
10 a.m.

Where: Polish Museum of America
984 N. Milwaukee Ave.
Chicago
