Clerk Dorothy Brown and Her Staff Deliver Early Christmas Gifts to Southside Children

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and her staff will personally bring Christmas gifts to approximately 50 children from Paul Hall Community Center.

Community center students and their parents will greet Clerk Brown when she, a Clerk's Office Santa Claus and Clerk's Office employees arrive with the presents.

"The Clerk of the Circuit Court employees and I are delighted to help fulfill the Christmas wishes of Paul Hall children," said Clerk Brown. "We are thankful to have the opportunity to give presents, but more importantly, we want the children to know how much we care about their happiness."

Clerk Brown and her staff purchased various gifts in response to the children's requests made through the Clerk's Office "Letters to Santa" program.

When: Tuesday, December 20, 2005
6:30 p.m.

Where: Paul Hall Community Center
10140 S. Halsted
Chicago, IL
