Clerk's Office Honors Asian Culture During Heritage Event

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and the Clerk's Office Asian-American Employees Social Club (AAESC) are hosting an event to commemorate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month.

The AAESC organizes this annual event to honor various Asian cultures. This year's program will feature an award presentation, traditional and modern Indian dancing and Filipino Martial Arts.

Clerk's Office employees will wear traditional Asian attire from India, China, Japan and the Philippines. The program will also feature an Asian cuisine buffet.

"I am delighted to participate in our annual Asian-American Heritage celebration that is especially colorful and enlightening," said Clerk Brown.

When: Tuesday, May 17
11 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Concourse Level Room CL 115
Chicago
