Cook County Clerk of the Circuit Court Dorothy Brown's Office
Honors National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day

WHAT: In honor of National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, the Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host a Veterans Respect Day for all Clerk's Office veterans and Clerk's Office employees whose spouses are veterans.

All Clerk's Office military veterans are encouraged to wear their full or partial uniforms during a breakfast program where Clerk Brown will express her gratitude to those who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

"On National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, we honor the lives lost in that attack and salute the veterans of World War II. We also pay tribute to all of the men and women now serving America to advance freedom around the world," said Clerk Brown. "Since the Clerk's Office has a number of military veterans and veterans' family members working in the office, I thought this event could appropriately show our respect and appreciation."

WHEN: Wednesday, Dec. 7, 2005
9 a.m.

WHERE: Richard J. Daley Center
50 West Washington, Ste. 1001
Chicago, IL

DETAILS: On the morning of December 7, 1941, a U.S. Military base, Pearl Harbor, was attacked without warning or provocation. More than 2,400 Americans died and 1,100 were wounded.
