Dorothy Brown Welcomes University of Illinois Students to Clerk's Office

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will speak to approximately 25 students from University of Illinois College of Law when they visit the Clerk's Office.

"I gladly welcome the students to the Clerk's Office because it is important that they learn how to effectively navigate the court system," said Clerk Brown.

During the tour, students will discover what services are offered in each Clerk's Office division and the procedures for filing cases.

When: Monday, January 10
9:30 a.m.

Where: Richard J. Daley Center
50 W. Washington
10th Floor Conference Room

Details: The students tour of the Clerk's Office is a part of the University of Illinois College of Law's 7th Annual "Bootcamp," which was founded by university alumna and attorney Karen Conti. In addition to touring the Clerk's Office, students plan to visit the 1st District Appellate Court, Federal Court, and the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals.
