Dorothy Brown to Address HIV/AIDS Issues in the “Breaking the Barriers” Panel Discussion

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, is scheduled to be a panelist for the “Breaking the Barriers” conference. She along with panel members will discuss services that are available to communities of color affected by HIV and AIDS.

Clerk Brown will also speak to the role that government may play in assisting the affected individuals as well as the importance of educating communities and eliminating stigmas attached to people with HIV/AIDS.

“HIV and AIDS touches everyone in today’s society,” said Clerk Brown. “I am honored to join a forum that promotes dialogue to increase awareness and establish solutions for dealing with these matters.”

When: Friday, April 22, 2005
9 a.m.

Where: Liberty Baptist Church
4849 S. King Dr.
Chicago
