Students Committed to Education Receive Computer Scholarships

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and Leroy Wright, Chairman & CEO of Wright Capital Partners, LLC, will present high speed computers to ten college bound, recent graduates of Chicago and suburban public high schools during the Third Annual Leroy Miller Entrepreneurial Scholarship Award Ceremony.

Brown and Wright established the Leroy Miller Entrepreneurial Scholarship in 2003, and have awarded a total of 15 Chicago area high school graduates with computers, in the past two years.

Scholarship recipients were chosen based on high academic standards, financial need and their potential to make positive contributions to society. All recipients are scheduled to major in political science or various areas of business and have been accepted as full-time undergraduate students at accredited colleges or universities.

"I am fortunate to partner with Leroy Wright to provide hard-working, college bound students with computers to facilitate their university experiences," said Clerk Brown.

When: Thursday, July 28
9:30 a.m.

Where: Daley Center
50 W. Washington, Concourse Level Room CL 115
Chicago

Details: The following high school graduates will be awarded computers: Shantonie Derrick from Evanston Township High School; Deondre Rutues from Austin Community Academy High School; Brandon Gillespie from Dunbar Vocational Career Academy; Evan Cherry from Proviso East High School; Khady Diagne from Bowen High School; Brittani Melvin from Thornwood High School; Marcella Horton from Englewood Technical Preparatory Academy; and Daissy Diaz, Vanessa Sanchez and Erica Zuniga from Hubbard High School.
