CLERK BROWN DELIVERS CHRISTMAS GIFTS TO DESERVING KIDS ON CHICAGO'S SOUTH SIDE

WHAT: In what has become a Clerk's Office tradition, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County Dorothy Brown and her staff will play Santa to Alberta Hall Elementary School students.

Clerk's Office staff purchased various items to fulfill holiday wish list letters written by more than 50 students in the Santa's Letter Program coordinated by the United States Postal Service. This is the fourth year the Clerk's Office has worked together to donate items and gifts to those less fortunate.

"I am thankful that the Clerk's Office staff has come together to make a difference in the lives of children who may not experience a traditional Christmas," said Clerk Brown.

WHEN: Thursday, December 14, 2006
6:30 p.m.

WHERE: Alberta Hall Elementary School
10140 S. Halsted St.
Chicago

DETAILS: In response to the U.S. Postal Service's request to adopt schools to fulfill the more than 300 letters not answered each holiday season, the Clerk's Office adopted Alberta Hall and Anthony Overton Elementary Schools. Many students attending these schools are economically challenged and requested assistance during the holiday season.
