Dorothy Brown Informs Bronzeville Community of Clerk's Office Services

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Clerk Court of Cook County, will speak to members of the Community Link Uniting Bronzeville (CLUB) about the processes and services offered in various departments of the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

"I believe that it is important to educate the public on how best to navigate the court system," said Clerk Brown. "Therefore, I am always eager to talk to community groups like CLUB so citizens are well-informed about the Clerk's Office.

When: Wednesday, April 26, 2006
7 p.m.

Where: Community Link Uniting Bronzeville Club House
3847 S. Giles Ave.
Chicago, IL

Details: CLUB holds monthly meetings in the Bronzeville Community Club House or "BCC House," founded by organization President John A. Cook. BCC House was conceived to be a special place where the dreams of children and adults alike are encouraged and brought to life.
