DOROTHY BROWN INVITED TO ATTEND
NEW ORLEANS MAYOR NAGIN'S INAUGURATION

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, as a special invited guest, will give remarks at the Inauguration of the Honorable C. Ray Nagin, Mayor of the City of New Orleans.

"I am very honored to have been invited to attend, and speak at, Mayor Nagin's inauguration," said Clerk Brown. "He has overcome an harrowing ordeal in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. As a native of Louisiana, I am especially rooting for the recovery of the great city of New Orleans."

Clerk Brown will also attend other Inauguration day activities, including an Interfaith Service of Prayer and Song and a reception celebration.

When: Thursday, June 1, 2006
1:00 p.m.

Where: The Ernest N. Morial Convention Center
Conference Auditorium, Hall H-1
900 Convention Center Blvd.
New Orleans, LA

Details: C. Ray Nagin, the mayor who charted a course for his city through Hurricane Katrina, won a re-election on May 20, 2006. Nagin had 52 percent of the vote, while his challenger Lt. Gov. Mitch Landrieu received 48 percent.
