DOROTHY BROWN SPEAKS AT THIRD
YOUTH ANTI-GANG CONFERENCE

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will speak to 100 high school students from the City of Chicago's 10th Ward during the Southeast Chicago Anti-Gang Initiative Third Youth Conference.

Clerk Brown will talk to students about the significance of making the right decisions today to ensure their success in the future.

"I am always happy to share my words of wisdom with young people," said Clerk Brown. "It is important that they know they have the power to do whatever they set their minds to do."

When: Thursday, January 19, 2006
10 a.m.

Where: Rainbow Park & Beach
3111 E. 77th St.
Chicago, IL

Details: The Southeast Chicago Anti-Gang Initiative is a coalition of more than 40 social service agencies, schools, healthcare providers, religious leaders and city and state officials. The coalition's objective is to collaboratively develop comprehensive education, prevention and intervention plans to reduce gang recruitment and involvement among youth on Chicago's Southeast side.
