Dorothy Brown Speaks About Maintaining a Healthy Body and Soul
During the National Council of Negro Women's Conference

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will discuss life satisfaction and empowerment opportunities for African American women at the "Stay Beautiful, Stay Fine: Healthy Body, Healthy Wallets, Healthy Soul," conference hosted by the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW) Chicago Midwest Section.

This event is part of the NCNW's public education campaign to inspire African American women. The organization also seeks to broaden the definition of "aging well" and encourage women to see how social engagement and planning for financial security contributes to the quality of life for women of all ages.

"I am honored to speak to women from various backgrounds about how sustaining a healthy body and soul as well as being financially secure allows women to live more satisfying lives," said Clerk Brown.

When: Saturday, May 6
Program begins at 9 a.m.
Clerk Brown speaks at 1 p.m.

Where: Malcolm X College
1900 W. Van Buren
Chicago, IL

Details: The NCNW is a council comprised of volunteers from the nation's African American women's organizations and community-based sections in 34 states. Founded in 1935, the NCNW mission is to lead, develop, and advocate for women of African descent as they support their families and communities.
