Dorothy Brown To Keynote
American Contract Compliance Association Luncheon

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will be the keynote speaker for the kickoff luncheon at the American Contract Compliance Association's (ACCA) 20th Annual National Training Institute.

This year's luncheon theme, "Surpassing All Obstacles, Boldly Facing the Challenges of the Future," will help professionals gain a higher level of understanding and expertise, while they address the challenges of developing equality for all Americans.

"I am impressed with the American Contract Compliance Association's commitment to support, train, and develop professionals who work in a variety of areas," said Clerk Brown. "I am honored to address this illustrious organization."

When: Wednesday, August 30, 2006
12:00 pm

Where: Holiday Inn Chicago-Mart Plaza
350 N. Orleans
Chicago

Details: The ACCA is the first and only organization that offers professionals the opportunity to earn Certified Contract Administrator and the Master Compliance Administrator certifications through a partnership with Morgan State University. ACCA's Training Institute offers college credit to professionals who work in the areas of Affirmative Action, Economic Business Development, Labor Compliance, Contract Compliance, Equal Employment Opportunity, and Minority/Woman/Disadvantaged/Small/Emerging Business Enterprise program in public and private organizations.
