Dorothy Brown To Receive
Nigerian American Public Professional Association's Service Award

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will receive a Service Award from the Nigerian American Public Professionals Association at their 6th Annual AIDS Outreach Dinner. Clerk Brown will be honored for her efforts to raise money and bring more awareness to the AIDS epidemic.

The very first Fundraiser held in 2001 was entitled "Let It Start With Me: A Fundraiser to Fight AIDS in Africa" and attracted broad support from lawmakers at every level - including Clerk Brown.

"I am committed to supporting organizations that are at the forefront of the global fight against HIV/AIDS. It is a visionary decision that reflects our recognition of the threat posed by this global catastrophe," said Clerk Brown.

When: Saturday, September 23, 2006
8:00 p.m.

Where: Hyatt Regency McCormick Place
2233 South Martin Luther King Drive
Chicago, IL

Details: The money raised have this event will help fund an AIDS clinic, AIDS medicine and medical supplies, and physician training at major universities in Nigeria - Africa's most populous country. The Nigerian-American Public Professionals Association (NAPPA) is a nonprofit 501(c) (3) organization representing Nigerian-American public service employees in ranking positions in federal, state, county and city government. It serves as a nexus for strengthening its professional and community link with all governmental bodies.
