DOROTHY BROWN TO SPEAK
AT OLIVE-HARVEY MIDDLE COLLEGE

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will be a featured speaker at Olive-Harvey Middle College as part of its President's Distinguished Speakers Series. Clerk Brown will discuss her job responsibilities and how expungement services may help the future of some students.

"If individuals qualify for having their records expunged, this will give them a second chance at life," said Clerk Brown.

The Olive-Harvey Middle College students are currently working on a video titled, "Expungement," which is about the process of having one's court records destroyed. The video will be distributed throughout neighborhood high schools and community outreach programs.

When: Wednesday, January 11, 2006
1 p.m.

Where: Olive-Harvey Middle College
Bruce Cherry Theatre
10001 S. Woodlawn Ave.
Chicago, IL

Details: Olive-Harvey Middle College is an educational option program for students, ages 16-19, who dropped out of traditional school systems. The college brings a variety of prominent lecturers, politicians and community leaders to speak on a variety of issues through its President's Distinguished Speakers Series.
