CLERK BROWN SERVES AS PRINCIPAL FOR A DAY

CHICAGO (October 30, 2008) - Clerk Brown served as acting Principal at Oglesby School for the 10th annual “Principal for a Day” program held on Oct. 30. The purpose of the national program is to encourage business and community leaders to serve as role models for students, and get firsthand experience in regards to the challenges that students, teachers and principals face in schools and classrooms across the country. According to the “Principal for a Day” website, the national program has expanded to more than 600 schools with over 1700 business and community leaders volunteering their time to program.

Clerk Brown joins Principal Clifton Hunt and the students at Oglesby School where she served as “Principal for a Day” on Oct. 30.
