Clerk Dorothy Brown and the President of Milhouse Engineering and Construction Award Children of Employees with Computers and $1,000 Education Grants through Annual Scholarship Program

WHAT: Hon. Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and Wilbur Milhouse, President of Milhouse Engineering and Construction, will award Netbook computers and $1,000 scholarships to three college students who are the children of Clerk's Office employees.

The Milhouse Engineering Incentive Computer Scholarship is an annual scholarship program for the children and grandchildren of employees of the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County. Scholarship winners must have a 3.0 or higher grade point average, been accepted as full-time students at accredited colleges and intend to major in business, engineering or political science.

The three 2010 Milhouse Engineering Incentive Computer Scholarship recipients are:

- Nina Arthur, graduate of Martin Luther King Jr. College Prep, attending the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana, and the daughter of Byron Arthur (Audit Services); and
- Colin Casey, graduate of Marist High School, attending Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida, and the son of Richard Casey (Criminal Division); and
- Vanessa Williams, graduate of Wells Community Academy, currently a freshman at Wilbur Wright College, and the daughter of Vernetria Williams (Micrographics Department).

"I am honored to partner with Mr. Milhouse as we demonstrate that executives from public and private industries can work together to enhance the educational experience of our youth," said Clerk Brown.
