Senior Citizens in the Workplace Honored by Clerk Brown “Salute to Seniors”

Clerk Dorothy Brown, (seated, center), presented to the seniors of the Clerk’s Office certificates of appreciation during the “Salute to Seniors” ceremony at Daley Plaza on Tuesday, October 25, 2011.

Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, recognized approximately 100 members of her workforce who are over the age of 70 years. She presented them with certificates of appreciation during a “Salute to Seniors” ceremony at the Daley Center.

“I am pleased to hold this event for our much valued and respected seniors in our office,” said Clerk Brown. “Many are well over the age of retirement, yet their loyalty and dedication to continue working with us is remarkable. Our elder workers are blessed with essential skills and are real assets to the workplace.”

The oldest member of the Clerk’s Office staff being 97 years old: Ms. Rosalind Del Vecchio, Civil Division.

In 1988, President Ronald Reagan declared August 21 National Senior Citizens Day. He intended it to be a day when we recognize the contributions of the elder members of our communities.
