Clerk Brown Appointed to National Association of Counties (NACo) Arts & Culture Commission

CHICAGO --- B. Glen Whitley, President of the National Association of Counties (NACo), recently appointed the Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County to the national Arts and Culture Commission of NACo. As part of her committee responsibilities, Clerk Brown will be making presentations to civic organizations in Cook County, addressing the topic of how "County Government Works".

Celebrating its 75th Anniversary, the National Association of Counties (NACo) is the only national organization that represents county governments before the Administration and Congress. NACo provides essential services to the nation's 3,068 counties. NACo is headquartered on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.
