Clerk Brown Welcomes Public Administrators from China to Tour Clerk's Office Divisions

(CHICAGO) -- The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, hosted several members of the Guangzhou Public Administration Delegation of China. They observed various divisions of the Circuit Court Clerk's Office, including archives, labor relations, accounting, intergovernmental affairs, telecommunications and the public information department. Their goal is to discover procedures that may be replicated back in their own branches in the Guangzhou, China, court system.

The Honorable Dorothy A. Brown poses with (from right) Deputy Chief Judge Xu Ye; Municipal Archives Chief Qifen Zhang; News Desk Deputy Chief Chen Qiaomei; and Financial & Economic Affairs Deputy Director Zhang Zhenxing during the Guangzhou, China, delegation's visit to the Clerk's Office on October 4, 2010.

(Standing Center) Phillip Costello, Chief Deputy Clerk of Archives for the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, gave a tour to members of the Guangzhou Public Administration Delegation of China including: (from right) Deputy Chief Judge Xu Ye; Municipal Archives Chief Qifen Zhang; News Desk Deputy Chief Chen Qiaomei; and Financial & Economic Affairs Deputy Director Zhang Zhenxing on October 4, 2010.

The Honorable Dorothy A. Brown greeted members of the Guangzhou Public Administration Delegation of China including: (from right) Social Security Assistant Consultant Chen Leiyu; National Registration Authority of Public Institute Director General Zhou Saiqun; and Executive Leadership for Education and Training Deputy Director Xu Daoying on October 7, 2010.
