MONGOLIAN DELEGATES VISIT OFFICE OF DOROTHY BROWN, CLERK FOR THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

(CHICAGO) --- The Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County welcomed 24 delegates from Inner Mongolia on March 8, 2011. They met with John Chatz, Executive Clerk of Court Operations and Administration, who gave an overview of the Clerk's Office, one of the largest unified court systems in the world.

"There are seven district courts that serve more than 7 million residents in Cook County. On behalf of the Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, we are delighted to have you visit some of our various court divisions during your stay," said Mr. Chatz.

The delegates observed three divisions of the Clerk's Office, which included the Criminal, Chancery and Traffic Departments. The group is enrolled in a three-month training program in a professional management at the College of Business, Northern Illinois University. Dr. Manu K. Vora, Chairman and President of Business Excellence, Inc., is the tour coordinator.
