Dorothy Brown Remembers Congresswoman Cardiss Collins

The Country Has lost a Trailblazer for the People

(CHICAGO) — “I am deeply saddened by the passing of our beloved Congresswoman Cardiss Collins. She was a giant of a leader, a role model, and more importantly, she was the first African American Congresswoman from Illinois, who was a trail blazer for civil rights, women health’s rights, welfare issues and gender equality. I will always remember her as the woman that led the way for many of us, said Clerk Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County.

My heart goes out to her family and to all of Chicago because we were all greatly impacted by her public service,” Clerk Brown continued. Congresswoman Collins was greatly respected and will be dearly missed.”
