Clerk Brown Remembers Former Illinois Comptroller Dawn Clark Netsch

CHICAGO – I am deeply saddened by the loss of Former Illinois Comptroller Dawn Clark Netsch. She was a feisty, smart and courageous woman who took on the tough battles, like gay and lesbian rights before anyone else did. Such courage allowed her to make history by being the first woman to win the Democratic nomination for governor. We thank her for her wisdom, and for setting the bar of excellence and grace for us all. I will always remember her as the little woman who could do just about anything,” said Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County
